MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to Centenary Basketball via the 1991-92 Basketball Media Guide. We hope that it will supply you with most of the basic information needed to cover the Gentlemen this season, but if added information is desired, please feel free to contact the Sports Information Office.

Media credentials are available to personnel from accredited media outlets by contacting Steve Murray, Sports Information Director. Credentials are available prior to tipoff at the Will Call window, located at the North entrance to the Gold Dome. The press room is on the lower level of The Gold Dome, adjacent to the Sports Information Office. Media seating at the press table is limited and will be filled accordingly.

The Gent Sports Information Office is on the lower level of The Gold Dome. Office hours are 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday. Phone: 318/869-5092, FAX 318/869-5145.

Radio Stations wishing to broadcast from The Gold Dome should make broadcast requests through the Sports Information Office. One courtesy line will be made available at no charge to the official station of the visiting team. Visiting radio line number is 318/869-5400; call back or trouble line number is 318/869-5298.

Telephones for writers wishing to file from The Gold Dome are available in the Sports Information Office on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Media Services include a game program and lineups plus stats and notes for each team. Halftime stats are provided as well as final individual and team stats and play-by-play. Refreshments are available before the game in the press room.

Post-game interviews: The Gents request a 10 minute "cooling off" period immediately following the game. Coach Tommy Vardeman will be available for interview following his post-game show on the radio. Media personnel are allowed to interview Centenary players in the locker room following Coach Vardeman's departure from the locker room.

THE TOP TWENTY

Centenary was ranked in the nation's major college Top Twenty by the Associated Press 14 times during the 1973-74, 1974-75 and 1975-76 seasons. That included 11 weeks during the 1975-76 season when the Gents finished with a final ranking of number 19.

1990-91 in Review

Heading into the 1990-91 basketball season, the defending Trans America Athletic Conference regular season champion Centenary Gents were picked by most pre-season prognosticators to finish somewhere in the middle of the TAAC pack. After all, Centenary was without 1990 TAAC Player of the Year and current NBAer Larry Robinson, who averaged 22.9 points per game to lead the Gents to a 22-8 record and a second straight trip to the conference finals on ESPN. Even though 1990 TAAC Coach of the Year Tommy Vardeman returned for his second season as the Gents head mentor, he retained only three starters, and inherited five freshman. Still, Centenary found a way to prove the critics wrong once again, as they came out of nowhere to finish a remarkable 17-12 overall and a second place finish in the TAAC, the third straight season that the Gents finished in the upper-echelon of the league.

The 1990-91 season started off with a bang as the Gents defeated Nicholls State 98-86 in the first round of the Century Cellunet Classic at the Gold Dome. Freshmen Jamar Comeaux and Nate Taylor both came off the bench to spark the Gents as Comeaux and Taylor added double figures in their first collegiate game. The next night Centenary lost a heart-breaker to eventual NCAA tournament team Louisiana Tech 94-89 in the finals of the Century Cellunet.

The young Gentlemen then hit the road for four consecutive road games in which they went 2-2, beating Northwestern State 93-82 and Nicholls State 90-89, and losing to Grambling 115-107 and eventual NCAA tournament team Oklahoma State 110-58. The roller-coaster start continued as the Gents returned home to defeat Northwestern State 91-86, mixed in a pair of road losses to TCU (89-82) and Houston (100-57), and then defeated Southeastern Louisiana at home 104-100 to even their record to 5-5 heading into conference play.

Centenary opened up conference play at Texas-San Antonio, where the defending TAAC Champion Gents were defeated by eventual 1991 champions 118-97. From there, the Gents travelled to Texas A&M where they took a 45-44 halftime lead over the Aggies of the SWC. Nate Taylor's career-high 26-point performance was not enough as A&M outscored the Gents 59-37 in the second half en route to a 103-82 victory.

Tommy Vardeman's Gent squad returned from that road trip with their egos bruised and they had something to prove when they squared off against league foes Samford and Arkansas-Little Rock. All the Gents did was go out and beat Samford 101-88 before edging UALR 77-75 on Greer's 15-foot shot from the left baseline with five seconds left that moved the Gents into second place in the TAAC standings. Sophomore guard Shannon Washington led the way with 21 points and three 3-pointers as Centenary tied a Gold Dome record with 12 treys on the night.

Despite the team's dismal showing against big-name teams early in the year, the young Gent Freshmen were getting valuable experience that would prove healthy later in the season. Yet, the Gents were still searching for a team-leader, one that could take control of a game like current NBA player Larry Robinson did for Centenary in 1989-90.

Ironically, while Vardeman and his coaching staff were in Houston watching Robinson and the Golden State Warriors play the Houston Rockets, he noticed that the three-guard offense the Warriors' were running would fit perfectly with his team. Something had to be done as the Gents had just lost three straight road games to Louisiana Tech, Stetson, and Georgia Southern after the UALR win, dwindling their record to 7-10 overall and 2-3 in the TAAC.

Presto! Not only did the offensive scheme work, but it satisfied two problems. The Gents found the leaders they had been looking for in Greer and Buckwalter, and Centenary ran off 9 straight wins to improve to 16-10 overall and 10-3 in the league ... good enough for a second place finish with one game remaining. Over the nine-game winning streak Greer led the team in scoring 7 times, and had three games of 30 or more points. In the other two games, Buckwalter led the Gents in scoring, including a 41-point night in Centenary's 116-105 home win over league-leader Texas-San Antonio.

Patrick Greer

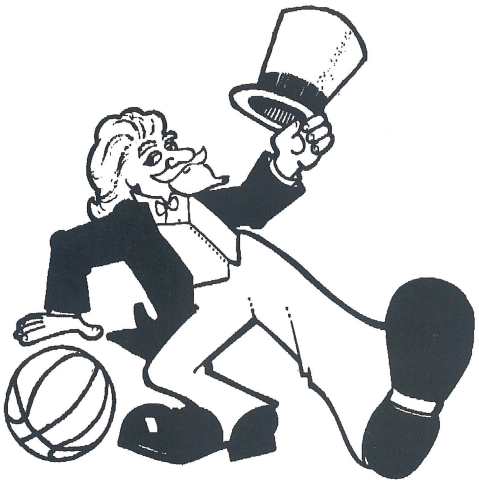
The Gents had come out of nowhere to challenge for their second straight TAAC title, but their dreams of accomplishing that feat ended on the last day of the regular season when UTSA clinched the title outright with a win at Mercer. Knowing this, Centenary fell victim to disappointment and an up and coming team as eventual TAAC-tournament champion Georgia State defeated the Gents 99-80 in Atlanta.

Centenary closed out the season in DeLand, Florida at the TAAC Championships hosted by Stetson. The Gents, behind Patrick Greer's 29 points and John Buckwalter's 24 blew past Samford 93-82 to advance to the semifinals.

The semifinal matchup paired the Gents with nemesis Arkansas-Little Rock, which the Gents had beaten twice in the regular season. The third time proved to be the charm as the Trojans upended the Gents 80-73 in the final TAAC meeting between the old rivals.

The Cinderella season had ended, but the accolades hadn't. Vardeman was named TAAC Coach of the Year for the second straight season and Greer was tabbed the TAAC Player of the Year. It was the second straight year that Centenary had the Player of the Year, as Greer earned it by averaging 20.5 ppg. Buckwalter, who averaged 17.7 ppg in 1990-91, was named Third Team GTE Academic All-American, an honor given to students who excell on the floor and in the classroom. Three other Seniors ended their Gent careers as Blaine Russell, Frank Lane, and Matt Lowery all played important parts in Centenary's unbelievable finish.



1991-92 Outlook

Young Gents Gun for TAAC

Youthful . . . there's no better way to describe the 1991-92 edition of Centenary Basketball. In fact youthful may be a bit of an understatement. Some simple facts help illustrate the point.

• Gone are five Seniors from last season's 17-12 squad, four of which were starters. Included in the quintet were 1990-91 TAAC Player of the Year Patrick Greer and Academic All-American John Buckwalter.

• Only one Senior is listed on the opening day 1991-92 roster. Paul Pyle (forward, Houston) played in only 3 games as a Junior, nursing a knee injury most of the season.

• Pyle and Junior guard Shannon Washington (Saline, LA) are the only players that have been on the squad for more than one year.

• Ten of the fifteen players reporting to opening day workouts were either Freshmen or Sophomores (5 each). The average age of the Gents back on October 15th was 19.3, barely old enough to vote.

• Eight Gents (3 JuCo transfers, 5 Freshmen) will wear Maroon & White for the first time.

• Only one starter returns from last year's squad. Sophomore Nate Taylor (Longview, TX) who finished third in scoring last season, averaging 8.2 PPG.

Faced with facts like those it's easy to see why third year head coach Tommy Vardeman is reluctant to say much about the 1991-92 Gents other than "Boy, we are YOUNG!!!. But you can't forget that those kids that are returning got alot of playing time. What we lost will definetly be hard to replace." While most of the early prognosticators are expecting the Gents to "rebuild" or "take a few lumps" this year Vardeman, the Two-time TAAC Coach-of-the-Year, is quick to respond "We've had two sucsessful years in a row, that translates to successful recruiting, which in turn means W's in the left hand column."

The position-by-position breakdown of the Gents this season looks like this:

The Guards

Shannon Washington (Jr, 5-10, Saline, LA) heads a group of three returnees at the guard spot. Washington, who averaged 7.7 ppg last season, started 12 games during the season. His career high 21 points came in the Gents home win over Arkansas-Little Rock last year. Washington's 39.6% 3-Pt shooting last season, as well as his 77.1% free throw shooting and 2.5 assists per game make him the top returner in those catagories. Washington can handle duties at both guard spots, making him an invaluable asset. He is expected to be at the shooting guard spot at the start of the season.

Jamar Comeaux (So, 6-6, Mossville, LA) is expected to provide excellent offensive capabilities to this season's squad. Comeaux had seven starts and averaged 12.5 minutes of play in '90-'91. Scoring in double figures in his first two collegiate games against Nicholls St. and Louisiana Tech (14 & 10 pts) during the 1990 Century Cellunet Classic, where he was also named to the All-Tourney team. Late in the year, Comeaux tossed in a long range "cool-as-can-be" 3-pointer to seal a 90-83 Gent road win over Arkansas-Little Rock.

Sophomore Derrick Jacobs (5-10, Little Rock) expected to sit our the '90-'91 season as a redshirt, but four games into the season it became apparent that the Gents needed Jacobs to add depth to the guard spot. Jacobs earned a great deal of playing time as a walk-on and will be expected to continue to add much needed depth in the Gent attack.

Newcomers Stacy Lawson (Jr, 5-10, Longview, TX) and Trent Smith (Fr, 6-2, Brookeland, TX) are expected to not only battle for playing time but push for starting roles on this year's team. Lawson, a JuCo transfer from Lon Morris is a former high school teammate of Gent forward Nate Taylor. He is expected to add an instant spark to the point position with his slashing-penetrating style of play. Recruited for his passing abilities, Lawson is one of the first "true" point guards the Gents have suited up in a few years. Smith's long-range shooting capabilities will fill a void vacated by former Centenary and TAAC 3-point career leaders Patrick Greer and Blaine Russell.

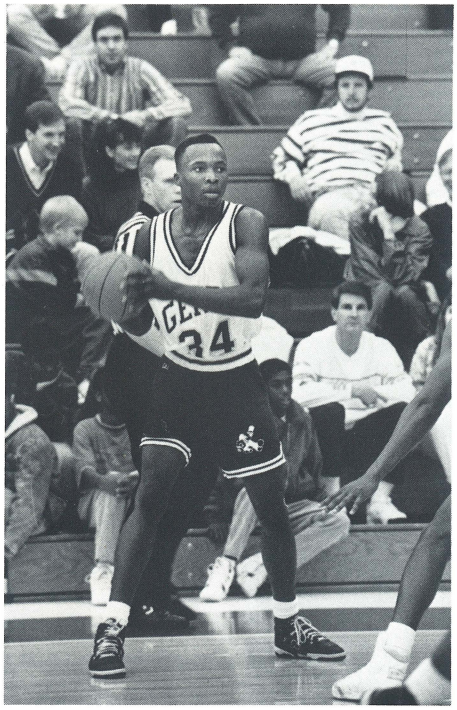
The Forwards

A position that the Gent coaching staff strengthened in the recruiting wars is the forward spot. Nate Taylor, (So, 6-7, Longview, TX) the only returning starter from a year ago will be pushed by a strong group of newcomers. Taylor, who started 19 of the last 20 games, is the top returning scorer. His 8.2 PPG ranked third on last year's squad. Taylor's 5.5 RPG is tops among returners and placed him second last season behind John Buckwalter's 7.1 RPG. Taylor scored a double-double in his first collegiate game netting 11 points and snatching 10 boards against Nicholls St. Many consider Taylor to be a future contender for TAAC Player-of-the-Year honors, following a long list of Gents given the honor.

The lone Senior on this year's squad, Paul Pyle (6-5, Houston) returns for his third season as a Gent. Pyle sat out most of last season with a knee injury. Lou Lumpkins (Jr, 6-7, New Orleans), Tyrone Warren (Jr, 6-5, Queens, NY), Marvin Bell (Fr, 6-4, Duncanville, TX) and Frank Mata (Fr, 6-9, Houston) will join Taylor and Pyle in making the forward spot the deepest position on the 1991-92 group.

Lumpkins transfers from Meridian Community College (MS) after enjoying a successful prep career at St. Augustine in New Orleans. Warren will cross the Red River from Bossier Parish Community College to take up residence at Centenary. Lumpkins and Warren know each other from Miss-Lou Conference play at the JuCo level in which Meridian and Bossier Parish shared the conference championship last season. Warren was named the 1990-91 JuCo Player-of-the-Year in Louisiana. Warren and Lumpkins will add instant rebounding prowess to a Gent program not known for it's "windexing".

Frank Mata and Marvin Bell, two of the finest prep players in Texas last year, will test the upperclassmen for starting roles. Bell, who possess exceptional leaping ability, was a member of the Duncanville, TX team that received the number 19 ranking in the final USAToday Boys Prep Rankings. Bell, an honorable mention McDonald's All-American, can slide to the shooting guard slot to increase depth at the position. Mata's height and leaping ability coupled with his fine inside skills, possibly the best on the squad, make him a shot blocking nemisis.



The Centers

Two Sophomores and a redshirt Freshman will battle for playing time at the pivot. Allan Jaster (So, 6-10, Madisonville, TX) has the most experience at the position, starting five times last season while averaging just under nine minutes of play. Andrew Knight (So, 6-9, Groves, TX) had one start in '90-'91 at Louisiana Tech where he scored a team high 13 in a loss. He provides a menacing force under the boards by packing 235+ pounds on his frame. Stuart English (Fr-RS, 6-11, Sulphur, LA) will make his debut in maroon and white this season. English is a former prep teammate of guard Jamar Comeaux. The trio will be backed-up by Freshman Frank Mata.

A 27 game slate is on tap for the Gents this season. Centenary kicks off the 1991-92 season by hosting the fifth Century Cellunet Classic, November 22nd and 23rd. The Classic will feature Centenary, TCU, Grambling and Southeastern Louisiana. Fifteen home games are set for play in the Gold Dome, where the Gents were 20-3 the last two seasons. A trip to Springfield, MO for the Pizza Hut Classic hosted by Southwest Missouri State is in store for the Gents, as well as, a venture into Carver-Hawkeye Arena at the University of Iowa. Fourteen conference games dot the schedule, in addition to contests with state rivals Northwestern State and Louisiana Tech.

The TAAC Tournament takes on a new format in 1991. The top two finishers in the regular season will host the preliminary and semifinal games on March 6th and 7th. The finals will be hosted by the highest remaining seed at their on-campus site. For the fourth straight year the TAAC Championship will be broadcast live on ESPN, Wednesday, March 11th. An automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament awaits the TAAC Tournament Champion.

GENTLEMANIA

- Centenary has participated in five (5) Trans America Athletic Conference Basketball Championships in the TAAC's 13 year history. No other current TAAC school has been in more title games in conference history.
- Centenary won the TAAC Regular Season Basketball Championship in 1990. Centenary also won the 1980 TAAC Basketball Tournament in Monroe, Louisiana. Every Gent appearanace in the Conference championship has been against the host team.
- Centenary is the alma mater of Robert Parish, 16 year NBA great and center for the three-time world champion Boston Celtics.
- Seven Centenary basketball players have been drafted by the NBA in the last 16 years ... Former Gent Larry Robinson signed as a free-agent with the Washington Bullets in 1990 and continues to play in the NBA. Cherokee Rhone has played professionally in Europe the last eight years and was twice been named "Player-of-the-Year " in the league.
- Centenary's overall athletic department is strong ... in 1988-89 Centenary became the first TAAC school to appear in three championship games in the same year (basketball, baseball, and soccer) .... the championship streak reached five.

Head Coach

TOMMY VARDEMAN

In just two seasons as a head coach, Tommy Vardeman has taken the Centenary Gents to new heights in the Trans America Athletic Conference. During his first season as head coach at the Shreveport school (1989-90), Vardeman led the Gents to their first ever TAAC championship with a 14-2 record, 22-8 overall. The 1989-90 season saw the Gents finish the season 5th in the NCAA in scoring at 95.9 PPG. His peers in the TAAC named him the 1989-90 Coach of the Year.

Vardeman and his Gents started out the 1990-91 season expecting to rebuild and start anew, after all they had lost TAAC Player of the Year Larry Robinson and 4 year center Marro Hawkins. Instead the Gents turned in Centenary's third consecutive winning season (17-12) and finished second in the TAAC regular season (10-4). The 1990-91 campaign proved most prognosticators wrong. Most had expected the Gents to finish somewhere in the middle of the TAAC pack.

During the second half of the 1990-91 season, Vardeman adopted a new offensive scheme to fit the personnel he had on the court, as a result the Gents took off on a nine game win streak that vaulted them to the top of the TAAC. Of the change in offense Vardeman has this to say "I was watching an NBA game that Larry Robinson (former Gent now with the Boston Celtics) was playing in and noticed that the offensive set that his team was running would fit our personnel. We put the system in the next practice and next thing you know we won nine in a row." The late season stretch drive the Gents put on resulted in a second TAAC Coach of the Year honor for Vardeman, making him only the second coach in TAAC history to receive the honor in consecutive years (Frank Kerns, Georgia Southern the other).

"We're anxious to see how this year goes," says Vardeman of the 1991-92 season. "We've had two great years on the court and two great years in the recruiting wars . . . that could translate into some good things. The team will be young (9 Freshmen and Sophomores) but they are all very good players with wonderful basketball skills. I'm not much of one to do any predicting, but with a little experience under our belts we'll be alright down the line."

Twenty-four years in the coaching business with stops at Texas prep schools, Missouri Baptist Junior College, Henderson State, Louisiana Tech and a 10 year assistant stint at Centenary, Vardeman holds a head coaching record of 39-20. Known by his peers to be a stickler for detail and quick with the repartee, Vardeman is a perfect fit with Centenary Basketball. "We believe that anyone that comes in contact with our program should have a positive experience," says the Center, Texas native, "whether it's one of our student-athletes, a fan or a summer camper, I want them to come away feeling good about Centenary and the basketball program." Case in point . . . 20 of 21 players that have stepped on the Centenary campus as Freshmen and played for four years have graduated during Vardeman's tenure as a coach at Centenary.

A graduate of Stephen F. Austin, Vardeman is married to the former Sharon Crocker of Garland, Texas. Together they have two daughters, Juli and Jennifer, both Centenary graduates.

"QUOTES FROM THE COACH"

On being selected TAAC Coach -of-the-Year in first two seasons as a head coach:

"What it means is that we've had two successful years on the court . . . I'd like to tell you we run a bunch of trick plays but we don't . . . I've also been lucky enough to have two Players-of-the-Years in the TAAC and guys smart enough to get them the ball . . . it's also Willie and Steve (assistant coaches, Jackson and Roccaforte) who deserve the bulk of the award, they got the kids here and keep me from screwing the team up."

On last season's highlights:

"The nine game winning streak has to stand out as the most exciting time, the kids couldn't do anything wrong . . . they could've folded the tents in early January, but didn't and those kids that saw the program through deserved the success . . . no one including me thought we could finish where we did."

On the TAAC race this season:

"Well, you've got to pick Georgia State to be right at the top, they've got alot back and finished strong last year. After that there is a bunch of teams that can run off a streak. It's hard to say about the new teams and the new players in the league . . . but I'm sure the league will be very competitive top to bottom."

On this season's team, their strengths and weaknesses:

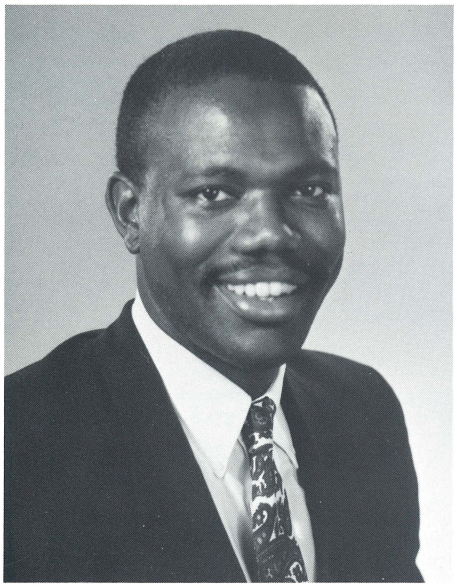
"The first person that everyone is concerned with is Nate Taylor, but let me tell you he's not the only player we have, not by a long shot. We've really improved the team with the recruiting that has been done the last two seasons. Our forward spots will be as good as anybody's we face this season. I can't forget though that half of our team probably isn't even shaving once a week . . . those kids are YOUNG. I hope one of our 6-9 plus kids will step forward at the center spot and our point guard position will be tough to fill since Pat Greer is gone (1990-91 TAAC Player-of-the-Year)."

On Centenary College and Centenary Basketball:

"A coach asked me about that this Summer and instead of some big analytical answer I said 'We're casual'. Our kids don't need appointments to see us and we don't need babysitters like alot of programs. We just try to have fun and we do. Centenary . . . the academics speak for themselves, my daughters went to school here and they both got jobs right after they finished, nothing better you can say than that. Everybody here, including me is proud of being the smallest Division I team (only 980 students), alot of outsiders try to make a big deal of us playing the Iowa's and Houston's of the world but you know what I say . . . we don't have to play 40,000 students, only 5 of them."

Assistant Coaches

WILLIE JACKSON



Willie Jackson begins his fourth season as an Assistant on the Gent coaching staff. Prior to arriving on the Centenary campus Jackson spent 2 years as head coach at Caldwell Parish High School.

Gent faithfuls still remember "Jack", (arguably the finest player to sport a Gent uniform) racing up and down the court (1989-84), tossing in a school record 2535 career points (22 average over 4 years) and grabbing 1,013 rebs (2nd all time) .

Jackson was drafted in the fourth round by the NBA's Houston Rockets, however he became the final guard released before the beginning of the 1984-85 NBA season. Jackson spent the next two playing seasons (84-85, 86-87) playing in the CBA.

During his years at Centenary Willie became the only player in TAAC history to be named THREE time Player-of-Year and as a freshman was voted Newcomer-of-the-Year. The Sibley, Louisiana product tossed in 30 or better points in 21 games as a Gent as well as having led his high school team to 100 consecutive basketball wins.

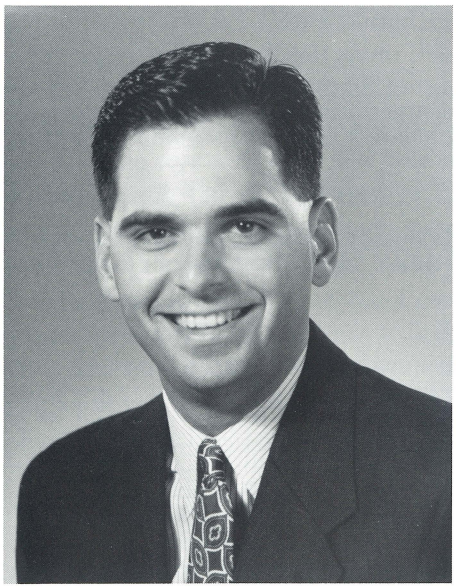
Gent Head Coach Tommy Vardeman considers Jackson the finest player he has coached "Willie had the ability and talent that you might get to coach once or twice in a lifetime ... HE COULD DO IT".

"Jack" is known for his easy manner yet ferocious intensity when he steps on the court, either as a player or a coach. Of Jackson as an assistant, Vardeman has this to say, "Jack has the unique ability to relate and communicate to every single one of our players at any level .... he can motivate the kids during a drill, at a game or in a class ... he makes my job easy."

Willie is married to the former Zebber Satcher (a Centenary grad and former Lady hoopster), together they have one child, Ashley, who's 3 years old .

In addition to his on-the-court duties, Jackson aids in recruiting, and scouting. Jack also directs the Centenary Basketball Summer Camps for boys and girls.

STEVE ROCCAFORTE



Steve Roccaforte begins his third season as the Gent Assistant in charge of handling the recruiting process. Prior to arriving on the Centenary campus Steve spent 3 years as a Student Assistant at Lamar University before graduating in 1989.

The Port Arthur, Texas native directs the recruiting process for the basketball program. "Rock's" knack for recruiting the process is evident in the great recruits that have filled the maroon and white the last two seasons. During Steve's first year as an assistant, he coined the phrase "scoot and shoot" for the Gents all out aggressive style of play.

"Rock is a blood hound in the recruiting process," says Gent mentor Tommy Vardeman, "he finds the kids that will fit into our program and stays with them until they show up on campus. Steve's organizational skills and commitment to our program makes him an invaluable asset."

In addition to coordinating the recruiting process, "Rock" handles all the Centenary "Big Men" as well as the weight lifting and conditioning programs for the team.

Roccaforte, 26, is single.

Career high 21 points came against UALR at home last season (January 19) in 77-75 win, a team high that night ... Personal best 8 assists came at the hands of Samford just two days earlier ... Perfect at the FT line in 8 of 20 games last season ... Had double figure scoring 9 times as a Sophomore ... Expected to provide upperclassman leadership on a youthful team ... Played mostly at point last season but will probably move to shooting guard this season ... Known for his ability to handle the pressure situations ... Selected 3rd Team Pre Season All-TAAC.

VARDEMAN ON WASHINGTON: "Moving over to the shooting guard slot will make Shannon a better player, he just wasn't comfortable at the point the last two years ... I expect alot from Shannon as a leader this season, both on the court and off ... Everyone will notice that he's gotten thicker from pounding the weights, that'll make him better."

HIGH SCHOOL: Spent year following high school at West Point Preparatory School in Fort Monmouth, New Jersey ... Average 7 ppg and 12 rpg at prep school ... West Point Prep 18-0 in games Knight played, finished 18-2 ... Played high school ball at Thomas Jefferson High in Port Arthur, Texas (home of Gent Assistant Steve Roccaforte) ... Averaged 11 ppg as a 6-9 point guard during high school senior year ... Also recruited by Tulane, Southern Methodist and U.S. Military Academy.

CENTENARY: Played in 15 games as a Freshman ... Netted one start at Louisiana Tech where he tossed in a team high and personal best 13 points that night ... Personal best 6 rebounds came in Gent loss to Houston 100-57 ... Exceptional overall size makes him a banger inside ... Will add incredible depth Gents have at center position.

VARDEMAN ON KNIGHT: "A real banger inside ... He's improved 500% since I first saw him ... Being only a Sophomore he's got his best basketball in front of him ... His mental game needs the work."

VARDEMAN ON WARREN: "Just like Lou Lumpkins ... strong and physical, the two of them will clean the boards for us this season ... He played center in JuCo but will probably face the goal this year as a forward."

CENTENARY THE OLDEST COLLEGE WEST OF THE MISSISSIPPI

Founded in 1825, Centenary College is the oldest private liberal arts institution West of the Mississippi. Centenary provides a superior education for students capable of intellectual leadership and for those who can benefit from study in an academic community where excellence is encouraged and individuality is respected. Centenary places emphasis on preparations for various professions. The college is an institution of the United Methodist Church.

Centenary boasts a student/professor ratio of 11 to 1 for it's 1100 graduate and undergraduate students, while classes rarely exceed 30 in popular introductory courses. Centenary is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The college offers the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Music degrees in 37 subject areas and a broad range of programs in a variety of pre-professional and interdisciplinary fields. Recently, a Centenary education was recognized in "Money's Guide to the Best College Buys" as the 22nd "best buy" in the U.S. based on the quality of education and competitive pricing.

Shreveport is located on the West bank of the Red River in Northwest Louisiana. The metropolitan area has a population in excess of 300,000 and forms the geographical, cultural and economic center of the region known as the Ark-La-Tex. Centenary is located two miles from downtown Shreveport and is widely known for it's natural beauty and stately Georgian architecture.

Centenary is a charter member of the Trans America Athletic Conference (est. 1978) and sponsors 13 men's and women's intercollegiate sports. Basketball, baseball, soccer, cross country, tennis, golf and rifle for men. For women the sports include cross country, volleyball, gymnastics, tennis, softball and rifle. Centenary is the home of current NBA great Robert Parish, PGA star Hal Sutton and former Olympic gymnast Kathy Johnson. In the 13 year history of the TAAC the Gents have won 10 conference championships. The Centenary Athletic Department was the recipient of the Jesse Fletcher Award in 1983-84 for the TAAC's best all-around program and has been runner-up in the years 1987-88, 1988-89 and 1989-90.

President of Centenary College

An award-winning educator with a keen interest in leadership and strategic planning was earlier this year named Centenary College's 34th President. Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab takes the reigns of the 166-year-old Methodist college from Donald A. Webb, who announced his retirement in December of last year.

Dr. Schwab comes to Centenary from the University of South Carolina where he was Executive Vice President for Administration and Associate Professor of Education in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies. He has taught graduate courses in leadership in higher education and institutional planning and research, and is credited with the establishment of a strategic plan for the total University system.

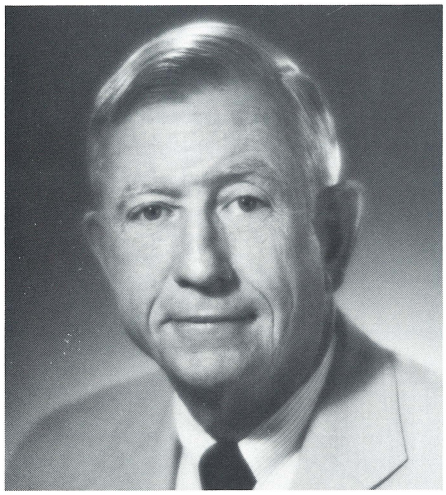
Prior to that, Dr. Schwab served 16 years at Guilford College, a private college in Greensboro, N.C., where he worked as Dean of Students, Assistant Dean of Students, and Assistant fo the President for Institutional Planning and Community Relations.

Dr. Schwab holds the Doctor of Education degree (1978) from Indiana University; Master of Education degree (1972) from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro; and the Bachelor of Science degree (1969) from Purdue University, where he graduated with honors as the 1969 Outstanding Senior.

He has done post-graduate studies at the Center for Creative Leadership in Greensboro, Johns Hopkins University, and Harvard University, and he was awarded an American Council on Education Fellowship in Academic Administration.

Dr. Schwab and his wife, Pat, who also has a doctorate degree in education, are the parents of three sons, Kempten, Carlton, and Christopher.

WALT STEVENS
Director of Athletics



Walter C. Stevens, Jr., in his eleventh year as Centenary College's athletic director, is the man responsible for coordinating activities and fund-raising for the athletic department.

A native of Macon, Ga., the retired Air Force Colonel of 30 years graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1951. He later earned a master's at Louisiana Tech.

In his eleven-year service at Centenary, Stevens has been instrumental in the purchase of a new portable wooden floor for the Gold Dome, and completion of a six-court $180,000 tennis complex. He has also served as president of the Trans America Athletic Conference for two years (1986-87).

Under Stevens' direction, Centenary's athletic teams earned the first-ever Jesse C. Fletcher Award in 1983-84 and finished as runner-up in 1987-88, 1988-89 and 1989-90. The award distinguishes the TAAC school with the strongest athletic program during a year.

Stevens coached freshman basketball and baseball from 1957-60 at Georgia Tech and studied under the legendary Bobby Dodd, who coached there for 30 years.

He is married to the former Caroline Stillwell of Macon. They have two sons and three daughters.

TRANS AMERICA ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

On September 19, 1978, the Trans America Athletic Conference formed when 8 charter members met to form the new league. Only 3 of the original 8 members are still around, those being Centenary, Samford and Mercer.

Schools have come and gone over the TAAC's 13 year history. In fact 18 schools can call the TAAC a current or former home. Beginning their first year in league competition is Southeastern Louisiana and Florida International. The College of Charleston will start a full TAAC slate in 1993.

A new edition to the TAAC is women's championship sports. The New South Women's Athletic Conference, consisting primarily of TAAC schools on the East coast, has come under the TAAC umbrella.

Mr. Bill Bibb, formerly the athletic director/basketball coach at Mercer, serves as the newly appointed conference commissioner. He succeeds Lou McCoullough who served as the commissioner for 8 years.

The TAAC sponsors championships in six men's sports—basketball, baseball, cross country, golf, tennis and soccer. The women compete for TAAC crowns in basketball, softball, cross country, tennis and volleyball.

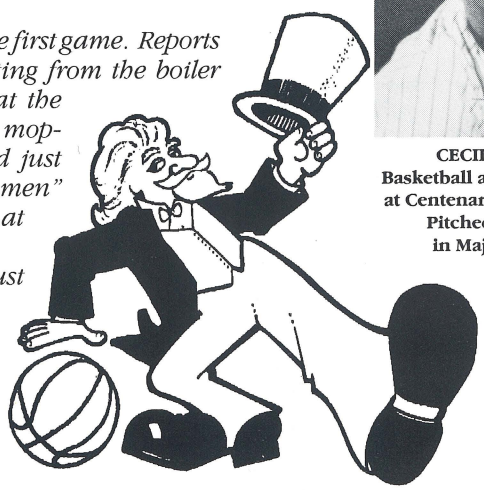
OUR NICKNAME

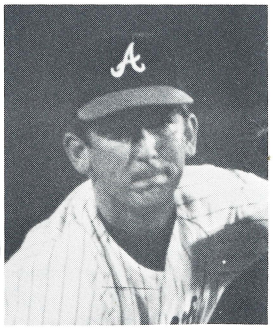
The unique nickname "Gentlemen" was first established in the fall of 1922. With the majority of Centenary men also soldiers, the moniker "Gentlemen" was a proud, looked-up-to name and a logical choice. A tongue-in-cheek account that first mentioned the new nickname appeared in the 1923 Yoncopin (Centenary yearbook) in that season's football summary.

"... The boys were beginning to round into pretty good form by this time and as several recruits had been recently added we were beginning to resemble a real college football team.

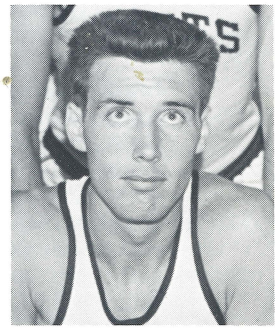
"Yet there was some doubt on the eve of the first game. Reports from the Marshall camp had them recruiting from the boiler factories and we were made to believe that the Marshall team was coming to Shreveport to mop-up with the "Gentlemen" (You see we had just taken the name of the "Centenary Gentlemen" and far be it from us to start a dispute just at that time).

"Well, we put on our best manners but just couldn't help from running up a seventy-seven to nothing score..."





CECIL UPSHAW
Basketball and Baseball star at Centenary from 1961-64. Pitched 9 seasons in Major Leagues



CONNIE MACK REA

YEARS OF HARD WORK. A MOMENT OF GLORY.

There is no such thing as an easy victory.

Every win is the result of years of hard work, years of dedication. And the sweetest success is hardest won. At American Airlines, we've seen how far that kind of dedication can go. It's the force that drives our on-time flights. Our efficient baggage handling. Our meticulous maintenance service. And the force that keeps us setting the industry's highest standards. Flight after flight, year after year.

It means pushing ourselves a little farther every day. But no one said winning would be easy. The best just make it look that way.
